

GREAT AFRICAN LEADERS

Research Project

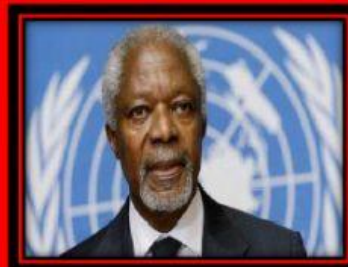

Click on the drop-down box to select the correct answer for each space.

Nelson Mandela was the first black president of _____. He fought against the _____ system in his country and as a result spent many years in _____. Mandela _____ all his enemies and won a _____ for his peace-loving life and his work to end discrimination because of race.

Julius Nyerere was Prime Minister of _____. He fought so that his country could gain _____ from _____. He was finally able to achieve this in December, _____.

Kofi Annan was a world leader from _____. He fought tirelessly for global peace and to bring an end to _____. He is also known for his outstanding work in tackling the _____ pandemic in Africa.

Jomo Kenyatta was an anti-colonial _____ who became the first president of _____. He promoted peace between the country's _____ groups and played a major role in ensuring that they broke free from colonial rule.

_____ was Africa's first female Head of State. She fought to end civil strife and corruption in _____. Even when she was arrested and imprisoned, she continued her fight and became an inspiration for many young _____ politicians.

Robert Mugabe was the first Prime Minister of _____. He believed that the races should be treated _____ and fought for everyone to have political rights regardless of their race. Though he was a _____ figure, he helped to free his country from British colonialism.