

Tense Review

Simple Present - Present Continuous

This is George. He (1) _____ (to work) in an office from 9 am to 5 pm every day.

He usually (2) _____ (to get up) at 6 and (3) _____ (to have) a shower.

He (4) _____ (not to have) breakfast, just a glass of water. Then, he (5) _____ (to take) the bus.

Today is different, at this very moment he (6) _____ (to drive) his brand new car. It's a special day, that is why he (7) _____ (to wear) a suit, instead of his blue jeans.

Simple Present

We use the Simple Present to talk about actions which happen with certain frequency, for example:

Habits and Routines

NOTE! We use the -s/-es in the verb, in affirmative sentences with the subjects HE/SHE/IT

You play tennis every Saturday afternoon.

She plays baseball every Sunday morning.

We use DO/DOES for questions and negatives.
(DOES with HE/SHE/IT)

Do you play tennis every Saturday?

Does she play baseball every Sunday?

You don't play tennis every Friday.

(You can also use 'do not')

She doesn't play baseball every Monday.

(You can also use 'does not')

Present Progressive

We use the Present Progressive to talk about actions which are happening at the moment of speaking (it doesn't matter if we see them happening).

Affirmative

I	am	cooking.
You	are
He/She/It	is
We/You/They	are

Negative

I	am	not	cooking.
You	are	not / aren't
He/She/It	is	not / isn't
We/You/They	are	not / aren't

Interrogative

Am	I	cooking?
Are	You
Is	He/She/It

Are We/You/They
