Three boys talk about how they spend their Saturday

Mark	Ryan	Ashley
I usually get up at 7 am on school days, but on Saturdays I stay in bed until 10 am. It's great! Then in the afternoon, my parents come to watch me play football. It's often really cold, so it's not much fun – but Mum always brings hot drinks! In the evenings, my two brothers are always in town with friends. My cousin Josh comes to my house and we watch a film together. It's usually an old one that we both enjoy.	I live with my dad and younger sister. Dad takes us swimming in the morning, so I need to get up early. Then in the afternoon we go to the supermarket in town to buy food. That's a bit boring, but I know he can't do it himself. He usually works on Saturday evenings, so my sister and I go to my auntie's house. It's on the same street as our house. We all sit and watch fantastic old movies together – it's cool!	I have basketball practice at 9 am, so I get up at the same time as a school day - I hate that! But I love playing the game. In the afternoons, I meet some of my classmates at the shopping centre in town. We buy a few things, and then go and see one of the latest movies. In the evenings, we sometimes drive to my grandma's. It takes a long time to get there, but we love visiting her.
