

Comparisons long adjectives (more / most)

The cakes are expensive.

The cherry cake is more expensive than the chocolate cake.

The strawberry cake is the most expensive.

1-syllable adjectives

long	longer	longest
dry	drier	driest
fat	fatter	fattest

★ Don't say '~~more~~ fatter' or 'the ~~most~~ fattest'.

2-syllable adjectives

polite	more polite	most polite
helpful	more helpful	most helpful
exception: adjectives ending in y, ow, le heavy	heavier	heaviest
narrow	narrower	narrowest
simple	simpler	simplest

3-syllable adjectives

expensive	more expensive	most expensive
delicious	more delicious	most delicious
popular	more popular	most popular

Warm up

Complete the table with the correct comparatives and superlatives. Follow the example.

1	popular	_____	the most popular
2	funny	_____	_____
3	hard-working	_____	_____
4	young	_____	_____
5	delicious	_____	_____
6	polite	_____	_____
7	large	_____	_____
8	expensive	_____	_____
9	pretty	_____	_____
10	beautiful	_____	_____

Date: _____

Practice

Write sentences using 'more ... than' or 'the most ...'.

1 interesting / 'Three Rabbits' / I think / 'Space Travel'

I think 'Space Travel' is more _____

2 the strawberry cake / delicious / I think / cake

I think _____

3 Dan / Maggie / tired

4 the doll / expensive / toy

Grammar
in Context

Ivy and Fiona are in a cake shop. Finish what they say with the correct form of the adjectives given.

cheap expensive delicious popular pretty Fiona : Let's buy the cheesecake. I love cheesecake! I think it's _____ _____ cake in the world.

Ivy : But it's also _____ cake in the shop.

Fiona : How much is it?

Ivy : It's $220! We only have $200.

Fiona : Let's buy the chocolate cake then. It's only $160. It's _____ _____ the cheesecake.

Ivy : Look! There's a cute kitten on the mango cake. I think it's _____ _____ cake in the shop! Let's buy it.

Fiona : OK. Excuse me. May I have the mango cake, please?

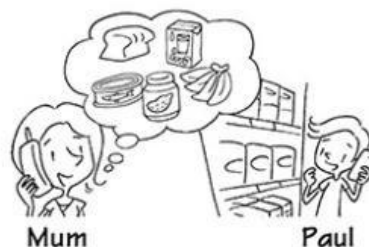

Shop assistant : Sorry, that's our last one and someone has already bought it. The mango cake is _____ cake in our shop.

Ivy : Oh, no!

Phrases of quantity

Paul : Hello, Mum. I'm at the supermarket. Do you need anything?

Mum: Yes. Please buy a loaf of bread, a carton of soya milk, a tin of sardines, a jar of peanut butter and a bunch of bananas. Thank you.

 a can of green tea	 a loaf of bread	 two loaves of breads	 two packets of potato chips
 a bottle of water	 a jar of jam	 two jars of jam	 three bars of chocolate
 a carton of fresh milk	 a bunch of bananas	 two bunches of bananas	 four tins of peanuts

Warm up

Complete the phrases of quantity.

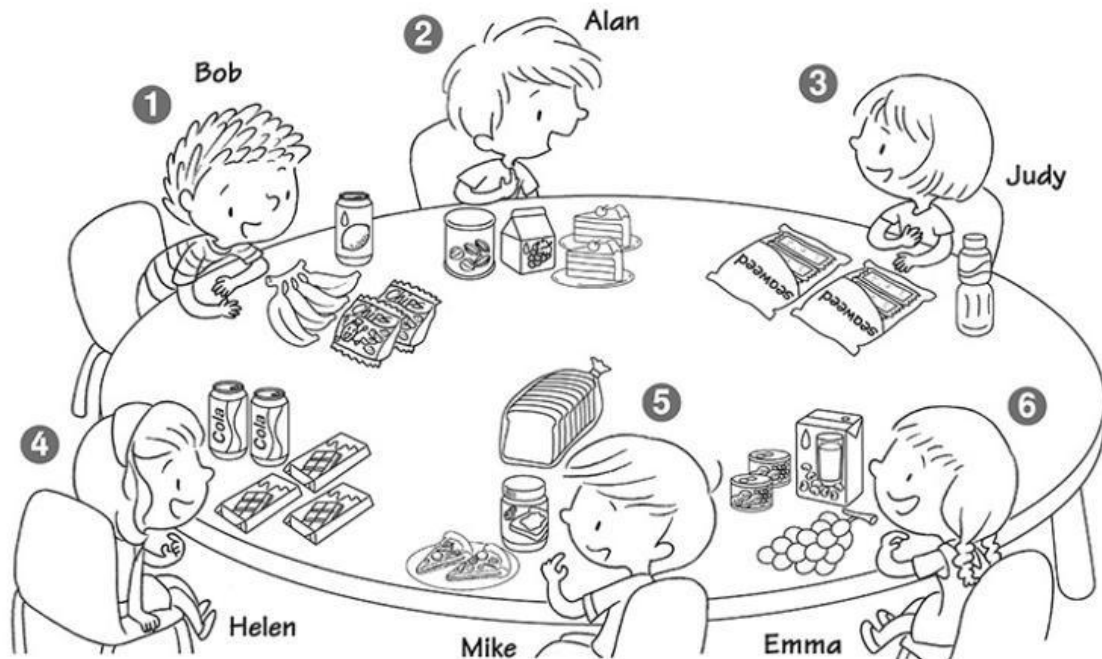

- | | |
|----------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1 a _____ of chocolate | 2 two _____ of tuna |
| 3 three _____ of water | 4 five _____ of peanut butter |
| 5 _____ biscuits | 6 _____ grapes |
| 7 _____ blackcurrant juice | 8 _____ coffee |
| 9 _____ apple juice | 10 _____ bread |
| 11 _____ lemon tea | 12 _____ honey |

Date: _____

Grammar
in Context

The children are talking about what snacks they have. Finish what they say using the correct phrases of quantity and the words given. Follow the example.

peanut butter	potato chips	water	cake	chocolate	nuts
pizza	lemon tea	cola	peanuts	grapes	bread
blackcurrant juice	bananas	seaweed	soya milk

- 1 Bob : I have a bunch of bananas, two packets of potato chips and a can of lemon tea.
- 2 Alan : I have _____
- 3 Judy : I have _____
- 4 Helen : I have _____
- 5 Mike : I have _____
- 6 Emma: I have _____