Sarah works for a local charity organization that gives poor children an opportunity to taste "foreign" food. This year "Wish you were here" has organized a food festival to raise enough money to send to children in Cornwall. They are hoping to attract a lot of visitors and they have already decided that the food festival is popular, so it will take place every year.

There are many things to do and see at the festival. You can buy food from many restaurants and you don't need to break the bank because meals are expensive. Children are welcome and their meals only cost nothing. Other events at the festival include face-painting and a competition which is open to participants from all age groups. Families will be especially pleased to see in an area when their children can have a meal.
