

3A VOCABULARY Air travel

|                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| A The aisle is the 'passage' in the middle of a plane.                                      | B You need to show your _____ before you can get on the plane.                                          | C The _____ is where your bags are weighed and your ID is checked.                                                               |
| D You take a _____ flight if you're flying in your country.                                        | E If you have _____ baggage, it means that it weighs more than what the airline permits.                | F You sometimes have to _____ a landing card before you go through passport control.                                             |
| G The departures board will tell you which _____ your flight is leaving from.                      | H You can usually only take one item of _____-luggage with you onto the plane.                          | I It's _____ to bring plants or fresh fruit and vegetables into some countries.                                                  |
| J You can get _____ when you travel between several time zones and feel very tired.                | L A flight which goes across continents is usually called a _____ flight.                               | M You have to go through a _____ detector to check that you aren't carrying a weapon.                                            |
| N Sitting next to _____ children on a long flight can be very annoying.                            | O Most people book their flights and hotels _____ nowadays, although some still go to a travel agent's. | P When you arrive at your destination, you need to _____ your bags at Baggage reclaim.                                           |
| Q You often have to _____ to get through passport control.                                         | R The _____ is where the planes take off and land.                                                      | S Everybody has to go through _____ before getting into the departure lounge to make sure they're not carrying prohibited items. |
| T During a flight, there might be some _____, when the plane can move up and down quite violently. | U When you get back home, you have to _____ your suitcase and put your clothes away.                    | V You need a _____ to get into some countries if you're not from there, e.g. Russia and the USA.                                 |
| W You sometimes have to _____ for a long time if your flight's delayed.                            |                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                       |

ACTIVATION

In pairs, go through the alphabet and remember the words about air travel.