

Part 1 LISTENING TASK

Listen to the audio and complete the sentences with a word or short phrase (1-3 WORDS)

Play the recording HERE

The speaker starts his discourse by looking at someone who may not want to continue doing something, or that nobody may want this particular _____ anymore.

The market can be weird, and you could be affected by _____ beyond you.

The speaker's thoughts are encompassed by the Japanese word 'Ikigai', which _____ means that which gets you out of bed in the morning.

He goes on to talk about the fact that you never work out your Ikigai, whichever _____ of life you may be in.

It is affected by change, as you may need to care for someone, or your industry may have sort of _____.

So, you are effectively dead, even if you are still alive, and the speaker finds this _____.

Someone successful, who may be thought to have 'made it' can wake up with a profound sense of _____.

This refers to despair, where monotony rules and what people, no matter how educated, sophisticated or _____, really want is a sense of anticipation.

People are really only looking for wonder, although they were trained to work hard and _____ and network, to climb the ladder of success.