Teenagers are not interested in sports. True or False?

Alan, 15

Unfortunately, I think it's true. A lot of teenagers are interested in so-called e-sports, but these are really just computer games, not real sports. More and more teenagers stay at home and play on their computers rather than go out and do conventional sports.

Mark, 14

I'm not sure I agree with Alan. OK, teenagers like computer games, but I think that we like going out even more. And when we go out, we often do sports. When I stay at home for too long, it's boring.

Teenagers don't help in the house. True or False?

Suzy, 12

I don't agree. My friends and I have to help in the house very often. For example, I help my mum in the kitchen at weekends and I tidy my room twice a week. Some of my friends do chores at home every day! So, I don't think that's true at all.

David, 16

I think the same as Suzy. My brother and I do a lot of things at home. He's good at cooking, so he often helps mum in the kitchen. I don't because I'm terrible in the kitchen. So, I take out the rubbish or vacuum the carpet.

Teenagers love fast food. True or False?

Eric, 13

Sure! You can see a lot of teenagers having hamburgers, chips or a pizza in fast food restaurants. You can see me there, too, at lunchtime! I don't eat lunch at school, so after classes I simply get lunch from a kebab stall or eat a hamburger on my way home.

1 Alan says that teenagers like computer games more than sports. True / False
2 Mark says that teenagers don't do sports. True / False
3 Suzy does household chores every day. True / False
4 David doesn't usually help in the kitchen. True / False
5 Eric usually has lunch in the school canteen. True / False
