

Shopping trip

Use Past Simple to complete the sentences.

Tanya Sophie Melanie

Hi! I'm Tanya. I'm 14 years old and I have two friends, Sophie and Melanie. We are best friends forever and we spend a lot of time together.

Last Saturday we (go) shopping. We (decide) to go to the biggest shopping mall in our town. We (be) so excited. Sophie (want) to buy a new pair of skinny jeans. Melanie (need) a new dress and I (be) desperate for a new pair of trainers. Our parents (give) us some pocket money so we (have) enough cash.

Our shopping trip (be) great. We (spend) only three hours in the mall and (get) everything we (hope) to buy. We (be) lucky because we (buy) our clothes in the sales. I (try) on a lot of trainers before I finally (choose) the perfect pair. Sophie (not want) to have another pair of blue jeans so she (pick) grey ripped jeans. She (put) them on in the changing room and she (look) absolutely awesome. Melanie (not buy) a dress but she (find) a lovely T-shirt.

Later we (walk) to the cafe and (order) big ice cream. It (be) a good day. And we (not be) even so tired.