

TAKE

1. We ought to get rid of this table. It takes far too much space.
2. If you're hot you can take your jacket.
3. John's always been difficult. He must take his dad.
4. You shouldn't take too many responsibilities.
5. She took her glasses when she had her photograph taken.
6. Rachel took me to lunch.
7. Would you please take your coat?
8. As the plane was taking, I realised I hadn't turned off the iron.
9. The company is taking 50 new employees this year.
10. Glenn has taken painting.
11. Writing her homework took most of the weekend.
12. She takes her mother; she has the same chestnut hair and dark-grey eyes.
13. He drove them to the airport in the morning. He said that their plane took at 9:30.
14. Who takes the garbage in your family?
15. How are you going to meet the deadlines if you take too many projects?