Veggie Cafe
Causeway Bay

By Pam Wong
Score: 0/10

I went there last year and the food was terrible — my soup noodles with mushrooms were bland. They were like string! For the prices, I expected better. These tasteless noodles cost over $200! It was my vegetarian brother's birthday last week so I decided to give Veggie Cafe another go. The food was still bad — my brother found a fly in his (over-priced) veggie hot pot. The service was worse! We waited almost an hour for our food. Then the waiter was rude — he tried to take away our plates before we finished eating! This was definitely not a meal to savour! We will not go there again. It is the worst vegetarian place in town!

Top Curry House
Tsim Sha Tsui

By Wendy Lee
Score: 9/10

I wanted something spicy — and I got it! Top Curry House makes the best chicken curry in town! It was rich, tasty and very fragrant — my mouth started watering as soon as I smelt it! The beef curry was tender and very, very hot! I asked the waiter for a glass of water to cool my mouth and he helpfully suggested a banana lassi. I had three glasses of this delicious yoghurt drink! The price was reasonable too. My family spent around $80 each for dinner there.

Peter's Place
Mong Kok

By May Chan
Score: 7/10

Yesterday was very hot so I wanted something cold — and sweet! That's why I decided to try Peter's Place. My cherry pie with home-made chocolate ice cream was great. Unfortunately my friend's apple pie was dry and far from fresh. Peter was friendly and gave us a $50 discount coupon to say sorry. I will come again to use the coupon and try other things on the menu.
