The Spread of Islam in Africa

1. By what century did most of the Northern Sudan and Eritrea had converted to Islam
    a. 19th
    b. 15th
    c. 13th

2. Conversion to Islam was slow on the _____ coast.
    a. West
    b. East
    c. Northern

3. What did the Berbers trade with West Africans?
    a. salt and other gold and ivory
    b. spices, silk, and copper
    c. sugar, fur, and cotton

4. What did Muslim clerics and scholars provide?
    a. books to every household
    b. advice on trade, security, and governing
    c. donkeys and cattle trade

5. Who were converted first?
    a. women and children
    b. citizens
    c. Leaders

6. What did the Ghana do to become an empire?
    a. recruiting slaves to become part of their army
    b. charged every business a 10% collection fee,
    c. taxing merchants, building a large army, and conquering surrounding people

6. Who took over the Ghana Kingdom and trade cities in West Africa?
    a. Muhommed and his army
    b. Mali's King Sundiata
    c. Mali's army

7. What king built 100,000 man army to keep control over Mali?
    a. Mans Moose
    b. Morse Muffasa
    c. Mansa Musa

8. What city had a university and became an important center for learning?
    a. Abudabbi
    b. Mecca
    c. Sudan

LIVEWORKSHEETS