

MISS CUTU BILINGUAL HELP

HEY YOU PINK FLOYD

LANGUAGE WORKSHEET

TAKEN FROM: Original

VOCABULARY: Match the expressions with their meaning:

STANDING IN THE AISLES

Further than

ITCHY FEET

Succumb / give up

FADING SMILES

Make a getaway / escape

BURY THE LIGHT

Brief /shifting smiles

GIVE IN

Waiting for something

YOUR EAR AGAINST THE WALL

Athlete's feet

BRAKE FREE

Become hopeless

THE WORMS ATE INTO HIS BRAIN

ignoring the situation

BEYOND THE WALL

Living dead

WHAT HAPPENES FIRST? Organize the events in the song:

- Hey you, don't tell me there's not hope at all
- The wall was too high, as you can see
- Getting lonely, getting old

- Waiting for someone to call out
- No matter how he tried
- Together we stand, divided we fall

GRAMMAR TIME! Turn these sentences into negatives and questions. Use the simple present tense.

1. You are always on your own.
2. She waits for someone to call out.
3. Maria and Daniel come home every weekend.
4. People break bottles in the hall when they are angry.
5. I always see you on the road.

Propiedad Intelectual y Derechos Reservados de
Lucía Cortázar Mora.
Prohibidos su uso y reproducción sin autorización previa, expresa y escrita, so pena de incurrir en conductas contrarias a la Ley