

QUANTIFIERS

A. Choose the correct options.

1. I have good idea.
a) any b) a lot of c) a d) an
2. Look! He is stealing apples.
a) a b) some c) any d) an
3. Jessie is an outgoing person. She has friends.
a) a lot of b) a c) an d) any
4. I feel alone and depressed. I don't have friends.
a) a lot of b) a c) an d) any
5. Would you like milk for your coffee?
a) a few b) some c) a d) an
6. We haven't oranges to make orange juice. Can you buy some?
a) some b) an c) any d) a
7. He is rich and he has money.
a) a b) any c) some d) lots of

B. Complete the questions with "How much" or "How many".

1. people live on the island?
2. does this camera cost?
3. time do we have to do this project?
4. questions were there in the exam?
5. invitation cards did he prepare?
6. milk do we need to make a cake?

C. Read the dialogue and circle the correct option.

Carla: I want to make a / some party cake. Can you help me mum?

Mother: Sure. What kind of cake do you want?

Carla: a / an big chocolate cake.

Mother: So you need a lot of / a few chocolate and some / any milk.

Carla: Yes, I know. We went to the supermarket and bought chocolate milk many / some flour and a lot of / any eggs.

Mother: That's good. You are ready to make you cake.