

1. Complete the conversations by circling the best answers. Then practise reading them.

1. Lan: Nam, do you think family routines are necessary?

Nam: Yes. _____ each family should have some routines to help build strong family bonds.

- A. I'm not sure that
- B. I strongly believe that
- C. I agree that
- D. I hope that

2. Lan: What do you think about the British family value of being truthful and honest?

Nam: _____, it's one of the first things parents should teach their children.

- A. In their opinion
- B. In a nutshell
- C. In my own way
- D. In my opinion

3. Lan: Nam, do you think parents should help their children do their homework?

Nam: Well, _____ parents should let their children do their homework by themselves so they can become independent.

- A. I don't think
- B. I wish that
- C. I believe that
- D. I hope that

4. Lan: Do you think teens should learn how to cook?

Nam: Well, _____ they can learn it when they start their own families. As teens, they should spend all their time on study.

- A. I suppose that
- B. I hope that
- C. I doubt that
- D. I agree that