

To: thu@webmail.com

subject: My family routines

Hi Thu,

How are you today ? We are still good here. In the last email you sent me, you asked me a lot about my family's daily routine. Well, we seem to have quite a few habits that help us learn life skills and build family bonds, but I'll just tell you about three main habits in my family.

First, my family always eats lunch together. Lunch is very important to us because we share daily stories and have good times together. Second, we watch movies or play our favorite games together every Sunday night. It's wonderful that we gather every Sunday night . Third, every two weeks, on Saturday, we clean the house together. We even made a list of all the household chores. Each of us chooses one or two household chores of personal choice. We all feel happy and proud to see our homes spotlessly clean at the end of the day.

Do you have similar family habits? I want to know more about your family.

Please write back soon.

Best,

Han

Task 1: Read the text and choose the correct answers

1. Which phrase is commonly used as a polite way to begin an email?
 - A. "How are you today?"
 - B. "Well, we seem to have quite a few habits."
 - C. "In the last email you sent me."
2. What phrase does Han use to express interest in Thu's family habits?

- A. "I'm curious to know."
 - B. "Please write back soon."
 - C. "I want to know more about your family."
3. Which sentence in the email indicates the beginning of a new paragraph or topic?
- A. "How are you today?"
 - B. "Well, we seem to have quite a few habits."
 - C. "Do you have similar family habits?"
4. What type of information does Han share in the second paragraph of the email?
- A. Personal updates.
 - B. Family habits and routines.
 - C. A request for information about Thu's family.
5. Which phrase in the closing of the email is commonly used to end a letter on a positive note?
- A. "In the last email you sent me."
 - B. "Best regards."
 - C. "We are still good here."

Task 2: Read the text again and answer these questions

1. What are three main habits in Han's family for building life skills and bonding?
2. Why is lunch important for Han's family, and what do they do during this time?
3. Describe Han's family Sunday night tradition. What activities do they enjoy, and why is it wonderful?

4. Explain Han's family house cleaning routine. When and how do they divide household chores?
5. What is Han curious about regarding Thu's family, and why does he want to know more?