

Exercise 1: Complete the following sentences using the to-infinitives or bare infinitives of verbs in brackets.

1. She asked me _____ (help) her with the project.
2. The teacher advised the students _____ (study) regularly for better grades.
3. It's important _____ (understand) the instructions before starting the experiment.
4. He promised _____ (finish) the report by the end of the day.
5. The manager encouraged the team _____ (collaborate) on the new proposal.
6. My mother taught me _____ (cook) the dinner dish.
7. They decided _____ (travel) to a foreign country for their summer vacation.
8. The team leader urged everyone _____ (attend) the upcoming training session.
9. It's necessary _____ (communicate) effectively in a team environment.
10. The children were excited _____ (visit) the zoo during the school trip.

Exercise 2: Fill in True or False for each sentence using the to-infinitives or bare infinitives of verbs.

1. She asked me help her with her homework . ()
2. The teacher advised the students to study regularly for better grades. ()
3. It's important to understand the instructions before starting the experiment. ()
4. He promised to finish the report by the end of the day. ()
5. The manager encouraged the team to collaborate on the new proposal. ()
6. They decided to attend the conference for professional development. ()
7. It's easier to solve complex problems when you break them down. ()
8. The children were eager to learn about space exploration. ()
9. She needs to practice the piano daily to improve her skills. ()
10. The team planned to visit the client's office next week. ()