

12. The weather forecast is awful. It good for the picnic.

doesn't look good

is not looking good

13. It very old.

Was looking looked

14. I perhaps it might be valuable.

was thinking

thought

15. 'Look, it a picture of a dragon on it.'

is having has

16. 'Go on! The man honest,' she whispered.

Seems

is seeming

Stative verbs

Write next to each sentence if the verb has a stative meaning or an active meaning.

Sentence	Write Stative OR Active
I have a car
They are having dinner at the moment
You are my best friend
She is being silly again
That soup smells good
He is smelling the soup
This milk tastes sour
I was just tasting the food
You look great!
He is looking at the teacher write now.
What do you see?
I am seeing my dentist this afternoon
I don't hear well
The judge will be hearing the evidence late this week
This melon weighs 2 kg.
He is weighing the melon

1. You nice because you want to borrow my car.
Are are being
2. He a nap - don't disturb him.
Has is having
3. I a lot of work to do today.
Have am having
4. We a party on Saturday. Are you coming?
Are having having
5. I like a walk. Do you want to come?
Feel am feeling
6. She this guy she met on holiday. I think they're quite serious.
is seeing sees
7. I what you mean.
See am seeing
8. I of getting a new laptop.
Think am thinking
9. You look very serious. What about?
are you thinking do you think
10. They'd left some fish in the fridge and it awful.
Smelled was smelling
11. You great! The new haircut really suits you.
are looking look