Mark the statements True or False

1. Animals are more attuned to their environment than humans. True False
2. The United States Geological Survey claims that there is a connection between animal behavior and natural disasters. True False
3. Animals have a supernatural sixth sense. True False
4. Animals can hear sounds that humans cannot, such as low-pitched vibrations made by earthquakes and storms. True False
5. Animals are less sensitive to noise than humans. True False
6. Stanley Corin studied whether dogs suffered from seasonal affective disorder. True False
7. Dogs with floppy ears were more likely to be agitated before an earthquake. True False
8. Animals can feel vibrations through the ground or sense shifts in air or water pressure. True False
9. Sharks change their behavior when storms cause pressure drops. True False
10. China evacuated a city before an earthquake hit based on animal behavior. True False

LIVEWORKSHEETS