Cloze Passage

Fill in each blank with the most suitable word from the box.

Each word can only be used once.

discover	mistake	decided	find
wanted	dismissed	lucky	relieved

Rahim was very happy when his father gave him a bicycle. Now he could ride to school with his friend, Manikam.

Last Tuesday, he stayed back after school to play soccer. Unfortunately, he could not 1. _____ his bicycle at the bicycle park when he had finished his game. As it was getting dark, he went home and 2. _____ to look for it the next day. Rahim was very worried because the bicycle was a gift from his father.

The next day, Rahim was called to the principal's office. He learnt that another pupil had taken his bicycle by 3. _____. On Tuesday, Yong Weng had parked his bicycle at the bicycle park too. At the end of the day, after school was 4. _____, he went to the bicycle park and rode Rahim's bicycle home, thinking it was his. When he realized his mistake, he reported the matter to the general office.

Rahim felt very 5. _____ to have his bicycle back. He had been dreading the scolding his parents would have given him if the bicycle had not been found.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

treatment	reached	followed	wanted
teaching	loved	bigger	grander

Dr Albert Schweitzer first became famous as a writer and musician. He decided to study medicine because he 1. _____ to help the sick people in Africa. There were many doctors in America and Europe but only a few in Africa.

In Africa, Dr Schweitzer had to travel in dangerous places to give 2. _____ to the sick. The natives helped him to build the first small hospital on the bank of a river. Patients 3. _____ him by travelling through jungle paths or in boats. Children with sores all over their bodies and men with snake bites were brought to the hospital.

Dr Scheweitzer worked day and night without much help. Later on, when he built a 4. _____hospital, other doctors and nurses came to join him. He spent most of his life in Africa, not only treating the sick but also 5. _____ the people how to help one another. He is still remembered today for his great contribution to the African people.

LIVEWORKSHEETS