Sounds American: The American Pronunciation training

Your Personalized Path to Fluent English Pronunciation

The short vowel o (a)

Speaking Test: Record yourself while reading the sentence

1. The odd shaped box sat in the corner catching everyone's attention.
2. On the edge of the table a single drop of water glistened in the sunlight.
3. Being honest in a difficult situation meant a lot to her integrity.
4. He felt a sense of honor in untying the intricate knot.
5. She leaped onto the bed her body filled with excitement.
6. Pursuing an option outside of college was a bold move for him.
7. The answer was obvious but few chose to follow that path.
8. Despite feeling odd about the request he decided to follow their lead and see where it led.
9. Her commitment to being honest throughout her college years earned her admiration among peers and professors.
10. The father carefully collected the delicate feather explaining its significance to his child during their nature walk.

LIVEWORKSHEETS