

I. Rewrite these sentences using perfect participle clauses. (Viết lại câu)

1. After we had listened to the speech from mayor, we delivered questions for understanding
2. He failed the university entrance exams, then he decided to enroll in a vocational school.
3. He hadn't practised hard enough, so he couldn't pass the final test
4. After I answered the job interview questions, I was asked to prepare a short presentation.
5. Although I was heavily injured, I was encouraged to run forward
6. He apologized. He had forgotten to submit his homework by deadline.
7. He won a scholarship. He was so excited about that.
8. She had purposefully dumped rubbish on the street. She was strongly criticized for that.
9. Class 12A1 ranked first in terms of academic performance. They were praised for that.
10. He had not dedicated much in his previous job. He regretted it.