

Read the sentences and put them in the correct order so they create a logical email.

I would like to become a pharmacist because I like medicine and I want to help people to get better.

I am also good at remembering things and speaking with different people.

Dear Miss Justyna,

I hope I will become a pharmacist in the future.

I am writing to you to tell you about my dream job.

I think that I am patient, smart and organized and it will help me to be a good pharmacist.

Kind regards,

Kolud Abdulla