

Adjectives in Book Reviews

1. Read the following sample sentences extracted from the Scholar's corpus. Fill in the blanks with an appropriate adjective from the list.

1. In this _____ book, Wedell and Malderez remind us that what takes place in the language classroom is simultaneous and immediate, and also unpredictable; it is concrete and overt, yet abstract and covert.

THOUGHT-PROVOKING

2. To conclude, the authors have written a _____ book in which they provide an _____ yet very _____ account of the close interconnection that exists between educational contexts/cultures and educational change.

CONSISTENT

3. The last teaching sequence for 6th Year secondary schools designed by Anabel Alarcón provides a _____ topic for teenagers as it deals with images and articles connected with beauty, anorexia and related issues.

WELL-WRITTEN

4. It is certainly a _____ publication that should not be missed if you are Book interested in ELT materials.

STIMULATING

5. A _____ and _____ qualitative research paradigm permeates through the chapters.

EASY-TO-READ

6. It is a _____ collection of voices, voices which have been eloquently carved in the pages of this book.

COMPREHENSIVE

7. Correspondingly, the book is remarkably _____, _____ and _____.

CLEAR

CAPTIVATING

READABLE

HIGHLY-MOTIVATING

WELL-FRAMED

INSIGHTFUL