

WHAT ARE LIVING THINGS?

1. Look at the tool and write its name. DO NOT USE CAPITAL LETTERS.

2. Complete the sentences with the name of the name of the tool being described. DO NOT USE CAPITAL LETTERS.

- a. We use a microscope to observe tiny living things that we cannot see with the naked eye.
- b. We use binoculars and a telescope to observe birds and mammals from a distance.
- c. We use a field guide to identify living things.
- d. We use a microscope to observe small living things.
- e. We use a microscope to see living things underwater.

3. Read the sentences and write U (for unicellular) or M (for multicellular).

- a. We can see them with the naked eye.
- b. They are just made up of just one cell.
- c. They are made up of a large number of cells.