

Talking About the Future

Remember:

We will go to the amusement park next Wednesday.
Milton's favorite team will not play in tomorrow's game.
Will the doctor give you medicine for your cough?

D. Complete the sentences with the verbs in parentheses. Use the future tense.

They will cheer (cheer) for their favorite team during the game.

1. The parrot will talk (talk) if you give it a cracker.
2. Melissa and Andy will not clean (not clean) their bedroom tomorrow.
3. The beautiful flowers of that plant will not blossom (not blossom) in the morning.
4. The tennis match will not start (not start) at 11 o'clock.
5. Don't worry, I will help (help) you paint the house next week.

E. Read the answers. Then, write questions with will.

Will she win the tournament tomorrow? Yes, she will win the tournament tomorrow.

1. Will you stop making noise?
Yes, I will stop making noise.
2. Will the Millers go to Texas next month?
Yes, the Millers will go to Texas next month.
3. Will my birthday party be in July?
Yes, my birthday party will be in July.
4. Will the big sofa fit in the room?
Yes, the big sofa will fit in the room.
5. Will those people cross the street?
Yes, those people will cross the street.
6. Will Adam make breakfast next week?
Yes, Adam will make breakfast next week.