1. I had to prove _____ that I'm worth trusting.

2. What do you usually do when there is nothing to do to _____?

3. The student couldn't answer the questions and was just _____ not to recall the answer.

4. Robert, you're 12 already. I remember looking after you when you were 3. _____!

5. Any information can spread _____ in a viral way everywhere.

6. That car moved off the track _____ —another moment and the train would have smashed into it.

7. I'm sorry, I can't chat for long. I need to go pick up the kids, and I'm a bit _____.

8. Our kids had too much _____ last summer break, so we decided to enroll them in a few different summer camps to keep them occupied.

9. It's _____ that you started revising. Otherwise, you'll fail the exam

10. Grandpa doesn't have a cell phone—he's _____, as usual.

11. I was shocked that they reached an agreement _____ after weeks of squabbling.

12. He was really _____ with this music—critics in the 1970s just couldn't see it.

13. With an infant in the house, we only get a few hours of sleep _____.

14. It's hard to predict how this law will really impact people's lives—only _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS