From: Theresa Yates

To: Irma Sims

Subject: Gryell Toys Project Team

Date: September 2

Hi Irma,

As you requested, I thought about which of the senior engineers should replace me as head of the Gryell Toys team when I retire. While Karen could probably do the job if needed, Trevor is my recommendation. Karen's grasp of engineering may be 131., but she doesn't always communicate clearly, and communication is very important in managing. In contrast,

Trevor 132. his decent engineering know-how with outstanding interpersonal skills. In my opinion, he 133. an excellent project team leader.

Please let me know if you need any more information to make your decision, or if you would like to discuss my recommendation in person. 134.

11 May

Shaheena Singh
83 Bowfield Street
Benningham, UK
BN4 7DA

Dear Ms. Singh,

I recently received your letter in which you described the poor condition of the pavement on your street and the flat tyre you suffered ^{139.} the uneven paving slabs. As you pointed out in your letter, the roads and pavements in your neighbourhood have been in desperate need of repair for quite some time. ^{140.}

Beginning on 18 May, work crews will remove and reinstall all paving slabs on Bowfield Street and several other streets in the area. They will also fix the potholes in the roads that many motorists complained about at the community meeting in March. I hope this will come as good news to you and your fellow constituents ^{141.} in the area.

Please accept my apologies for the incident with your car. I am confident that the planned work will prevent any similar ^{142.} from occurring in the future.

Sincerely,

Mike Duke
