

LISTENING PRACTICE – PART 4

PRACTICE 4

You will listen to a talk show of Anna Oliveira, the Creator and Founder of HomeworX App.

For questions 21 to 30, fill in the missing information in each numbered space.
Use NO MORE THAN ONE WORD for each space.

You will hear the talk show twice. Answer all the questions.

HomeworX is a tutoring app that is specially designed for 21. _____ and parents who face the challenges of 22. _____. Busy working parents do not have neither time nor the knowledge to help the kids to deal with their homework. The Creator and Founder of HomeworX, Ms Anna Olivera said that asking help from the specialist 23. _____ is not only expensive, but one has to be in a long waiting list to get one in the town or the region they are living in. HomeworX solve such problem in a twinkling of an eye by bringing both the students and tutors together 24. _____. Students can search a 25. _____ of pre-approved tutors and sign up for online support, anywhere part of the world. Besides that, this approach is a way to offer tutoring service at lower prices as the tutors do not need to spend time 26. _____ to and for to get to the student's home. Tutors in the remote areas can work from home at lower 27. _____ thus, happily get to access to more students. This idea of HomeworX inspired Anna immensely as she was one of the parents who faced the same difficulties in 28. _____ her son in his homework. As a 29. _____ parent, who was living in an area that are not many tutors, Anna finds it tough to understand anything about the subjects the son was having problem with. In future, with some funding in the hand, Anna hopes to expand the range of services to use the app 30. _____ everywhere. Tutoring app HomeworX, with an 'x' is available for both Apple and Android devices.

JPN PERAK