Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D to indicate the correct answer.

In the UK we each use about two hundred steel food and drink cans every year. Steel cans are popular because they are convenient; easy to store and unbreakable. But when you have finished with a can what do you do with it?

Do you throw it any way and forget all about it? Probably! but behind the scenes there are people whose job is to make sure that the steel is never wasted. In fact, recycling or reusing steel cans is so successful that every day of the year more than six million cans start new lives in new steel products.

After you have thrown your can, what happens? Well, first of all it is collected by the men who empty your dustbin each week and taken to a tip, together with all the other household rubbish. Then the rubbish is sorted and the steel cans are taken separately to a special factory which turns dirty old cans in to high quality steel. It's this steel which may well find its way back in to your home in the forms of knives and forks, garden equipment and, of course, food and drink cans.

So the next time you open your fizzy drink, just remember where your can may have been!
