

WOF/ The Dragonet Prophecy: Prologue

Answer:

1-5

11-15

6-10

1. What can we infer about Queen Burn's view on destiny and prophecy?
 - A. She believes destiny is shaped by prophecies.
 - B. She relies on prophecies to make her decisions.
 - C. She dismisses prophecies and believes in shaping her own fate.
 - D. She is indifferent and has no opinion on prophecies.
2. Why did Queen Burn attack Hvitur?
 - A. Because Hvitur was a threat to her soldiers.
 - B. To prevent the prophecy from coming true by eliminating a dragonet.
 - C. In response to Hvitur's attack on her.
 - D. She blamed Hvitur for the ongoing war.
3. What is the significance of the 'brightest night' mentioned in the text?
 - A. It is simply a natural phenomenon with no particular significance.
 - B. It is the time when Queen Burn planned to attack her enemies.
 - C. It is the night prophesied for the dragonets' hatching.
 - D. It is a celebration for the SandWing tribe.
4. Based on the text, what role does Hvitur play in the Talons of Peace?
 - A. He is the leader of the Talons of Peace.
 - B. He is a soldier assigned to protect the dragon eggs.
 - C. He is a messenger who relays information between members.
 - D. He is one of their members tasked with stealing a dragon egg.
5. What does the interaction between Kestrel and Webs tell us about their organization?
 - A. They are unified in their methods and objectives.
 - B. There is disagreement about the importance of the prophecy.
 - C. They regret their involvement in the Talons of Peace.
 - D. They have a clear and unwavering moral code.
6. What impact did Burn's actions have on the prophecy?
 - A. It confirmed the inevitability of the prophecy.
 - B. It accelerated the fulfillment of the prophecy.
 - C. It had no effect since the prophecy was false.
 - D. It created an obstacle to the prophecy's fulfillment.

7. How does Queen Burn perceive Hvitur and his motives?
 - A. As an honorable warrior following a righteous cause.
 - B. As an IceWing spy trying to bring down her kingdom.
 - C. As a naive dragon believing in a senseless prophecy.
 - D. As an ally of her enemy Queen Blaze.
8. Which dragon's actions demonstrated a clear conflict between duty and personal belief?
 - A. Queen Burn's enforcement of her own rule over the prophecy.
 - B. The SandWing soldiers' blind obedience to Queen Burn.
 - C. Kestrel's reluctance to care for dragonets despite their importance to the prophecy.
 - D. Hvitur's determination to protect the dragon egg.
9. What does Queen Scarlet's awareness of the IceWing thief indicate about her rule?
 - A. She is unaware of what happens in her kingdom.
 - B. Her lack of security measures allowed the theft to happen.
 - C. She is a powerful ruler with effective surveillance systems.
 - D. She has a secret alliance with the Talons of Peace.
10. What underlying theme is reflected in the conflict between Burn and the Talons of Peace?
 - A. The power of unity and teamwork.
 - B. The struggle between tradition and innovation.
 - C. The futility of resistance against a superior power.
 - D. The clash between free will and predestined fate.
11. Which character's death created a significant setback for the Talons of Peace?
 - A. Queen Burn's
 - B. Queen Scarlet's
 - C. Kestrel's
 - D. Hvitur's
12. What crucial choice did Burn make that revealed her approach to dealing with threats?
 - A. She decided to negotiate with Hvitur.
 - B. She allowed Hvitur to escape and alert the Talons of Peace.
 - C. She chose to harm the dragon egg to sabotage the prophecy.
 - D. She sought more information before taking any action against Hvitur.
13. Which dragons were directly involved in securing the dragonets' future following the incident?
 - A. Queen Burn and her soldiers

- B. Queen Scarlet and the IceWings
- C. Kestrel, Webs, and Dune
- D. The SandWing and SkyWing dragonets

14. What feeling does Hvitur express towards the ongoing war and the prophecy to end it?

- A. He enjoys the conflict as it gives his life purpose.
- B. He is indifferent, seeing no real solution to the war.
- C. He feels despair and clings to the hope of the prophecy.
- D. He is skeptical of the prophecy and believes the war will end through other means.

15. How does the text characterize the SandWing tribe led by Queen Burn?

- A. As peace-loving and diplomatic dragons.
- B. As deceitful dragons who cannot be trusted.
- C. As aggressive warriors who seek conflict.
- D. As isolationists who avoid involvement in wars.