

A1 THINK WORKBOOK

OBJECT PRONOUNS

6 Complete the sentences with me, him, her, us, you and them.

My new school is excellent. I really like it.

- 1 The school lunches are great. I like _____.
- 2 Our English teacher is Mrs Davis. I like _____.
- 3 We are good students. Mrs Davis is very happy with _____.
- 4 Tim is my best friend here. He's great. I really like _____.
- 5 Are you friendly? Do your classmates like _____?
- 6 I'm friendly. My classmates like _____.

7 Complete the dialogues so they are true for you. Use object pronouns.

A Do you like Frenkie de Jong? (name of a sports person)

B Yes, I really like him.

- 1 A Do you like _____? (name of a female singer)
B Yes, I like She's great.
- 2 A Do you like _____? (name of pop group)
B No, I don't like _____. They're terrible.
- 3 A Do you like _____? (name of a male actor)
B Yes, I like _____. He's an excellent actor.
- 4 A Do you like _____? (name of a comedy film)
B Yes, I like _____. It's very funny.

8 Write questions with like and the word in brackets. Then write answers so they are true for you.

0 Demi Lovato? (you)

Do you like Demi Lovato?

Yes, I like her. She's a great singer.

1 the TV programme Stranger Things? (you)

2 football? (your dad)

3 Imagine Dragons? (your best friend)

4 Cardi B? (you)

5 comedy films? (your mum)

6 the song Dance Monkey by Tones and I? (you)

7 pop music? (your parents)

We use it in the singular and them in the plural.

✓ I don't want this sweet. You have it.

✓ I don't want these sweets. You have them.

✗ I don't want these sweets. You have it.

Choose the correct option.

1 I play computer games. I like _____.

2 My dad has a really cool phone. I want _____!

3 My country is small BUT I like _____ a lot.

4 Maroon 5? I don't like _____.

5 My friends are here. I play football with _____ every afternoon.

6 Here is my homework. I finished _____ this morning.