Tourism will always have an (31) _____ on the places visited. Sometimes the impact is good, but often it's negative. For example, if lots of people visit one place, then this can damage the environment. The question is – how can we (32) _____ the problems without preventing people from travelling and visiting places? The main aim of ecotourism is to reduce the negative impact that tourism has on the environment and local people. The idea is to encourage tourists to think about what they do when they visit a place. It's great to talk (33) _____ protecting the environment, but how do you actually do this? There are a number of key points. Tourists shouldn't drop litter; they should stay on the paths; they shouldn't interfere with wildlife and they should respect local customs and traditions. (34) _____ people see ecotourism as a contradiction. They say that any tourism needs infrastructure – roads, airports and hotels. The more tourists (35) _____ visit a place, the more of these are needed and, by building more of these, you can't avoid damaging the environment.
