Emmy was doing her homework.
"I have to do a _____," she said.
"Make a volcano, Emmy!" Oliver said.
"Volcanoes are boring," Emmy said.
"They're just _____ and baking soda."
"You could put something else in the volcano,"
Harry said. "Like what?" asked Emmy.
"Some kids use _____ instead of vinegar,"
Harry said. "That makes red lava!"
"Cool!" said Emmy.
Aunt Judy looked worried.
"Will it _____?" she asked. "Mom might get mad."
"Mom won't mind!" said Emmy.
"Mom loves science experiments!" said Oliver.
