

Operation Pied-Piper

QUESTIONS ABOUT THE WEBSITE

(From What was Operation Pied Piper? to What was life like for the children?)

Definition

What was the Operation 'Pied-Piper'?

- a massive bombing
- an evacuation of British people
- a trip to visit people's families and friends.

Who was evacuated?

- British soldiers
- Men
- Kids, disabled adults, teachers, mothers with babies
- The British government

When?

- During WWI
- During WWII
- During the Civil war

The Plan

Match the zones with the right definition

- | | | |
|-----------------|---|--|
| Evacuation zone | • | • places in the countryside where people were hosted |
| Neutral zone | • | • places where there weren't any movement |
| Reception zone | • | • big populated cities with a risk of attack |

Who helped the Government?

- The Army
- teachers
- Volunteer people
- priests

Why did the British Government need Propaganda?

- because it was a hard operation
- because it was not easy to accept the operation and the separation
- because British Government loved Propaganda

Match the numbers with their corresponding information

- | | | |
|-------------|---|--|
| 3.5 million | • | • Number of evacuated children |
| 1.5 million | • | • Number of evacuees in total |
| late 30's | • | • years when the Government feared for vulnerable people |
| 1939 | • | • first mass evacuation |

The process

The process can be broken down into several key steps:

Reorder the different steps and then match the corresponding elements in the grid

Evacuees received a box with essential needs	Arrival	Identification	Evacuees received an evacuation number on a card
help of church and school	parents had to register children	Transportation	Registration
Creation of groups with common points	long trips	schools and community centers	trains or buses
	Families were supposed to match to make it easier	evacuees received host families meeting places

STEP 1 []	[]	[]
STEP 2 []	[]	[]
STEP 3 []	[]	[]
STEP 4 []	[]	[]
STEP 5 []	[]	[]