

Murder in the Flats

1. Miss Tibbs:

shirts

When I heard the gunshot upstairs, I <sup>2</sup> was ironing (iron) some sweats and <sup>2</sup> (was) drinking (drink) a cup of tea.

2. Tony:

a can of coke

What <sup>3</sup> were we doing (we / do) at 7 pm? Well, I don't really remember. I think my parents <sup>4</sup> begin the washing up and I <sup>5</sup> play a computer game.

3. Mr. Mackay:

No, I didn't hear anything. You see, I'm a musician and I <sup>6</sup> tune my guitar when it happened.

4. Mrs. O'Leary:

Oh, I'm not sure. I think I <sup>7</sup> read a book on the sofa and I think my children <sup>8</sup> pack their bags for school. But I could be wrong!

5. Mr. Watkins:

Well, we <sup>9</sup> have our dinner. In fact, my wife <sup>10</sup> serve the soup when we heard the noise from upstairs.

6. Mrs. Atkins:

I don't think I can help you. I was very tired yesterday evening. I <sup>11</sup> watch TV and my daughter, Sophie, <sup>12</sup> do her homework, I think.

At 7 pm last night, there was a murder on the fourth floor of a block of flats. The police interviewed six witnesses. But are the witnesses reliable?

Complete the witnesses' statements. Write the verbs in brackets in the Past Continuous. Then look at the picture of the block of flats and correct any wrong information. Follow the example in number 1.

Who is the most reliable witness?
