

Name:

Date:

Listening

1 ☉ Listen to the radio programme. What are the three forms of communication? (2 marks)

2 ☉ Listen again. Complete the sentences with one or more words. (8 marks)

- 1 According to Dr Graham, good communication can _____ all parts of our _____.
- 2 Dr Graham says that joining a _____ club is good to practise _____.
- 3 _____ consists of gestures, facial expressions, body movements and _____.
- 4 Students shouldn't just write _____; their writing also needs to be _____.

Reading

3 Read the text. Match sentences A–E with 1–5 in the text. (5 marks)

- A because writing can help prisoners to understand themselves better.
- B for example, translating books into Braille for blind children.
- C For this reason, the rehabilitation of prisoners is in the interest of the public's safety.
- D study for university degrees by distance learning.
- E These jobs help the prisoners to develop work skills and gain valuable work experience.

Many people believe that rehabilitation of prisoners should be a large part of any country's prison system. Research shows that many prisoners who have had little or no rehabilitation often go on to commit more crimes after they are released from prison. (1) ____ In the UK, some prisons make it obligatory for prisoners to participate in education opportunities. Many have left school with no basic qualifications, so the focus is on basic literacy and numeracy skills. Once these basic skills have been addressed, they can take vocational training courses in subjects like sewing, carpentry, IT, plumbing, and gardening. Prisoners can also (2) ____ Education and training help prisoners get ready for jobs on the outside.

Prisoners are encouraged to take up hobbies and do activities which help express their creativity and improve their emotional health. Book groups and creative writing courses are popular (3) ____ Arts and crafts are also popular, and sometimes prisoners discover hidden talents. Prison is a tough place and activities like these can help make life in prison more bearable.

Prisoners can also work in prison, which is a great opportunity to prepare for life outside. Jobs can include working in the kitchen, the laundry, the library and sometimes even on a farm. There are some unusual and interesting jobs, (4) ____ In some prisons, prisoners work as sales assistants, selling products over the phone to customers. (5) ____

4 Read the text again and answer the questions. (5 marks)

1 Who often commit more crimes after prison?

2 What kinds of courses can prisoners do in prison?

3 Why are these courses important?

4 How can prisoners learn to express their creativity?

5 What are the benefits of jobs for the prisoners?
