

Name:

Date:

- a. Read carefully and answer the questions.
- b. Choose the correct answer

1. In the future, computer chip / biometric information will be used as a form of surveillance. which is much more effective than CCTV.
2. Iris recognition / Radio Frequency identification technology is used to detect the part of the eye which is most individual and is more accurate than fingerprints.
3. The police officer asked me to try and scrutinize / identify the man in the line up who I thought stole my passport.
4. The activities of the suspected terrorists will be closely monitored / surveyed by the authorities.
5. The machine scanned / spied on the suspicious-looking package that had been delivered.
6. Some countries require their citizens to carry an computer chip / identity card with them that contains basic information that proves who they are.

c. Complete the sentences with the words below.

grain	group	pair	speck	swarm	tribe
-------	-------	------	-------	-------	-------

1. Did you see the programme about a _____ of indigenous people who had never seen modern civilisation?
2. RFID chips in passports are as small as a _____ of rice.
3. The thieves left behind no traces of their illegal activities, not even a _____ of dust.

4. How would you react if you saw a _____ of young hooligans causing trouble in the street?
5. What did Maria do when she found herself surrounded by a _____ of insects in the jungle?
6. Do you think it will be possible in the future for criminals to get a _____ of new eyes just so they can avoid being identified.

d. Choose the correct answer

1. I had never _____ iris recognition until I saw a programme about it.
2. The authorities were secretly _____ the man's conversations with a small device that was hidden in his hotel room.
3. Have you _____ the government's plans to introduce identity cards?
4. Everyone will have _____ the terrorists group after these recent attacks.
5. One thief _____ someone passing by, while the other broke into the office.
6. I still haven't _____ the police about my missing travel documents.