1. A person with great cooking and business skills would make a good restaurant owner.
   A person who has great cooking and business skills would make a good restaurant owner.

2. Those able to think creatively are the best team leaders.

3. A person opening a new business should try unusual marketing methods.

4. People with musical skills should share their talent with others.

5. People hoping to succeed in the arts should be prepared for financial challenges.

LIVEWORKSHEETS