

1. A person with great cooking and business skills would make a good restaurant owner.

A person who has great cooking and business skills would make a good restaurant owner.

---

2. Those able to think creatively are the best team leaders.

---

3. A person opening a new business should try unusual marketing methods.

---

4. People with musical skills should share their talent with others.

---

5. People hoping to succeed in the arts should be prepared for financial challenges.

---