

PHRASAL VERBS

look after run out of take off put on catch up with look forward to set off	break down take after dress up look up to show off get on with give up	sign up for take up join in put smth down go on find out get up
--	---	--

- | | |
|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to be responsible for dealing with something • to remove a piece of clothing from a body • to improve and reach the same standard as other people in your class, group etc • to start to go somewhere • to fail or stop working • to wear special clothes for fun or special occasions • to show something to a lot of people because you are very proud of it • to stop doing something, especially something that you do regularly • to become interested in a new activity and to start it • to write something, a name or number, on a piece of paper or on a list • to get information, after trying to discover it | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to use all of something and not have any more left • to put a piece of clothing on your body • to be excited about something that is going to happen • to get out of your bed after sleeping • to look or behave like an older relative • to admire or respect someone very much • to like each other and have a friendly relationship with each other • to put your name on a list for something because you want to take part in it • to take part in something that a group of people are doing or that someone else does • to continue doing something or being in a situation |
|--|---|

- I'll _____ early to avoid the traffic jam.
- Don't worry, I'll _____ the kids tomorrow.
- At the moment our class is more advanced, but other classes want to _____ us.
- We would be eager to _____ projects of that sort.
- I'm really _____ our vacation.
- We didn't _____ until lunchtime.
- The car _____ just north of Paris.
- _____ your shoes before you come in.
- He went to the party _____ as a Chicago gangster.
- I _____ Bill for his courage and determination.
- _____, I'm listening.
- I think he was trying to _____ in front of the girls.
- The two boys _____ the other kids.
- Why don't you _____ smoking?
- I would like to _____ for a yoga course.
- Roger wants to _____ painting instead of dancing as he's lost interest in it.
- We've _____ of milk. Could you stop at the store on your way home?
- _____ your name and address.
- I need to _____ more about these night courses.
- Jenny really _____ her mother.
- He _____ his uniform and put on a sweater and trousers.