

GRAMMAR WILL & GOING TO

GRADE

Name: _____

Date: _____

Activity A

Use verbs from the box with will/won't to complete the sentences and write P (prediction) or D (decision).

be find hurt go have make

- I'm tired now. I think I _____ to bed.
- Don't worry about the dentist. He _____ you!
- Do you want something to drink? I think I _____ some tea.
- I don't think I _____ able to finish this work for Monday.
- I _____ a dessert. Just a cup of coffee, please.
- I've looked everywhere for my earring. I probably _____ it now.

Activity B

Look at the sentences with the structure of the going to and write IN (intention), PL (plan) or PRE (prediction), based on the context of each sentence.

- Be careful! You're going to drop those plates.
- The car is out of control. It's going to crash!
- No more chocolate for me! I' going to lose some weight this year.
- Are you going to come by train or by bus?
- There's almost no one here. It's not going to be a very good party.
- Teresa isn't going to watch TV. She wants to finish her painting.

Activity C

Complete the sentences with WILL or GOING TO and the verbs in brackets.

- I've made at homework plan. I _____ (write) my history essay tomorrow.
- Do you think there _____ (be) more extreme weather in the future?
- A: This bag is really heavy! B: I _____ (carry) it for you!
- Look out! You _____ (fall)!
- I _____ (not tidy) my room this evening. I want to go out.
- I expect you _____ (have) a great time on holiday.