Look at these modal verbs.

- Students should always be punctual .
- This leaflet may not answer all your questions about the programme.
- The programme must be in the subject area of your degree.
- I can speak fluent English

1. Which of them is used to express/give…

SHOULD MAY MUST CAN

ability?

possibility or permission?

advice? obligation?

2. Complete the rules with the missing information.

negative Infinitive alone interrogative (-S)

Modal verbs are never used _____. The main verb is used in the _____ (without to). Example: You must follow the rules.

Modal verbs always have no _____ in the third person singular and no participles (-ing/-ed). Example: You/He may apply to participate in one of the Erasmus programmes.

The _____ and _____ forms are made without the auxiliary to do.

Example: Can I study abroad? – I can't apply this year.

LIVEWORKSHEETS