

1. Finding the right health insurance plan as a foreigner can be challenging. It's important to understand key terms and considerations to make an informed decision.

2. Hospitalization means being admitted to a hospital for medical care: hospital stays and medical treatments.

3. Outpatient care includes medical services outside the hospital, such as doctor visits, tests, and medications.

4. Major medical covers significant healthcare expenses like surgeries and specialist consultations.

5. Primary care covers routine services like doctor visits and preventive care.

6. Brand-name drugs are medicines with specific trademarks, while Generic drugs are similar but less expensive versions.

7. Prescription drug coverage means the insurance plan pays for prescribed medications. Also, check if the plan covers Over-the-counter drugs for regular

8. If you might face Emergency services or require Specialized care, consider insurance plans that cover Emergency services, surgeries, and rehabilitation.

9. Some plans include coverage for vision-related services like eye exams, glasses, and contact lenses. If you wear glasses or need eye check-ups, check if the plan offers Vision care