

WRITING EXAM

PART A:

Read the paragraph. Identify the eight spelling mistakes. Rewrite the words correctly on the lines below.

Singapore is a great city for a vacation. There are alot of interesting things to see. You can visit Chinatown and Little India and go shopping on Orchard Road. Singapore also has many good restarants. There are some great beaches for swimming naer the city, and the parks are really beutiful. The city has very good public transportation. You can take a bus, trane, or subway. It's a safe city. It's also a clean city. There isn't much polution. The only problem is that Singapore is expensiev.

- | | |
|----------|----------|
| 1. _____ | 5. _____ |
| 2. _____ | 6. _____ |
| 3. _____ | 7. _____ |
| 4. _____ | 8. _____ |

PART B:

Ha recibido el siguiente correo electrónico de un amigo estadounidense en el que le relata qué ha hecho durante las vacaciones:

Dear John,

How are you? I came back home from hospital yesterday because I broke my leg two weeks ago. Fortunately I am at home now and I can enjoy the rest of my holidays with my family. I planned a journey to Miami, but I couldn't go. I was very excited about going to the beach and swim in the sea. Maybe next year...

How about you? Where did you go on holiday?

I hope to hear from you soon.

Best regards,

Steve

Usted pasó las vacaciones en la montaña, esquiando. Responda con otro mensaje de correo electrónico (Escriba entre 70 y 90 palabras) en el que le cuente a su amigo qué hizo usted durante esas vacaciones con los siguientes datos:

- con quién estuvo de vacaciones;
- por qué eligió este destino;

WRITING EXAM

- cómo estuvo el clima y la comida;
- qué actividades realizó.