3F Vocabulary

Fill in the gaps with the words below.

especially overall evidence make a decision assume encourage improve your social skills obesity get good grades suggest dimensions failure cause prevent their children from provide many benefits headline violence concerns lead a group benefits

1. _____ for beginners, it's important to choose simple games to start with.

2. Trying out different types of video games can help you _____ on which ones you enjoy the most.

3. Friends can _____ you to try new video games and join them in playing together.

4. Playing multiplayer games online, you can_____ by learning how to communicate effectively with other players.

5. Certain video games may help children _____at school.

6. Too much screen time can_____ eye problems, so remember to take breaks while playing computer games.

7. Parents often try to_____ playing violent video games.

8. There is strong_____ that playing brain-training games can help improve cognitive abilities.

9. Don't_____ that all video games are violent or mindless, there are many educational and strategic games available.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

10. Spending hours sitting and playing video games can cause_____ and other health problems.

11. If you're feeling bored, I_____ trying out a new game to keep things interesting.

12. Educational video games_____, such as improving problem-solving skills and expanding knowledge in various subjects.

13. There is evidence to suggest that playing video games leads to real-life _____.

14. The newspaper _____ told us about the disadvantages of computer games.

15. Games teach children how to react to _____, it's all part of the learning process and improving your skills.

16. Some games cause _____ about the effects of excessive screen time and its impact on children's behavior.

17. _____, it’s not that simple to decide if computer games are a good or a bad thing.

18. Playing video games with friends can help you learn how to_____ and work together towards a common goal.

19. Strategies teach teenagers how to think in three _____.

20. Overall, playing video games can offer many _____, but it's important to find a healthy balance and not let it take over your life.

LIVEWORKSHEETS