

Cleft sentences with -What

Change the following sentences into cleft sentences using -What.

1. I don't like a manager who acts like a tyrant.

2. We're looking for someone who is a team player.

3. He would prefer to walk to the theater.

4. She wrote the most popular mystery novel of the year.

5. We saw the most dangerous snake in world.

6. The painting's modern look is very attractive to me.

7. My grade on the final test was really surprising.

8. She had a terrible case of the flu.

9. I don't understand why someone took my headphones.

10. The band's unique sound made everyone want to dance.
