

1

Join the sentences. Make one sentence with a similar meaning.

- 1 People say things. Why don't you ever listen?
Why don't you ever listen to what people say?
- 2 I tell my mother things. She never remembers.
My mother never remembers
- 3 You're talking about something. I don't understand.
I don't understand
- 4 He always wears dark glasses. He seems pretentious.
What makes him
- 5 I like my teacher. He's got a good sense of humour.
What
- 6 This city is dangerous. You must remember this.
What

2

Tick (✓) the correct sentences. Correct the wrong sentences.

- 1 I can't afford going out this weekend. can't afford to go out
- 2 Do you feel like watching a DVD this evening?
- 3 Thanks a lot. I promise to pay you back tomorrow.
- 4 I don't mind washing up but I hate to cook.
- 5 I'm learning driving and I hope to get my licence soon.
- 6 Imagine not to have a mobile phone. I couldn't survive.

3

Complete the sentence with a verb in the right form. Use the gerund or infinitive + to.

- 1 Don't forget to lock the door.
- 2 You must remember your grandmother for your present.
- 3 I don't remember you could borrow my tablet computer!
- 4 I feel better since I stopped so much coffee.
- 5 It was hot so we stopped an ice cream.
- 6 If he isn't answering his mobile, try the land line.
- 7 I tried all the questions, but I'm sure I made some mistakes.

4

Match the two parts of the sentences.

- 1 She's very friendly and enjoys e
- 2 I had to walk because nobody offered
- 3 Nick and Anna have finally decided
- 4 If you want to save money I suggest
- 5 I'm going to apply but I don't expect
- 6 The instructor told me to practise
- 7 I don't like weddings because I detest

a to give me a lift.
b parking the car.
c to get the job.
d wearing a suit and tie.
e meeting new people.
f staying in a B&B.
g to get married.