Level: B2 Upper Intermediate

Skill: Listening

Home Designing

Listen to a TV interview talking to a home designer expert.
For the following questions, choose the best answer A, B or C

What do people usually consider first when they decorate?
a. the layout of the room.
b. the contents of the room.
c. the colour scheme of the room.

What does Laurence say colour tells a visitor?
a. the mood we are in
b. the sort of people we are
c whether they will like you

What does Laurence think about the choice of colours these days?
a. There aren't enough colours.
b. People still tend to prefer white or pale colours.
c. People find it hard to choose.

What don't people often think of when they choose a paint colour?
a. whether everything in the room will match
b. what colours are most exciting
c. that some colours are no longer fashionable.

How do interior designers know what to do?
a. through following strict rules of design
b. through doing courses
c. through natural talent and experience

What kind of colours are nest for rooms facing north?
a. dark
b. pale
c. bright

In order to learn more, Laurence suggests people
a. experiment with colour and do what feels right.
b. hire a decorator.
c. always follow the rules of colour.

LIVEWORKSHEETS