1 The high mutual respect that the stepbrothers developed for one another was one of the most important developments that kept the blended family / nuclear family / bi-racial family together.
2 After getting divorced loads of parents strive to win offsprings / joint custody / household of their children.
3 There is no surprise that I take care of my multi-ethnic / nuclear family / blended family more, than of the extended one.
4 Hey, John! Look what this article states: "To be considered a common-law / bi-racial / cohabitation couple in the eyes of the law, it is not always necessary to live together!"
5 Well, I must admit I will miss him... As a husband, he did fulfill the model role of an attentive and loving offspring /household / spouse...
6 Nowadays more and more people are stepping away from the traditional wedding. Why, for instance, would two individuals want to form a legal marriage instead of simply blended / custody / cohabiting?
7 The government decided to apply a number of programmes to improve parenting and the mental health and well-being of offspring / household / spouse.
8 Sabine grew up in a blended / nuclear / bi-racial family: an environment full of cultural diversity and a desire toexplore her ethnic heritage.

LIVEWORKSHEETS